

Continence aids supply information

(IDC/SPC/CISC and other continence products)

If you have a pension card, Healthcare card or Queensland Seniors card, you may be eligible to apply for supplies of continence consumables through a government scheme called Medical Aids Subsidy Scheme (MASS) and/or Continence Aids Payment Scheme (CAPS).

The following health care professionals can attend MASS applications:

- Continence specialist registered nurse
- Geriatrician
- Occupational therapist
- Paediatrician
- Physiotherapist
- Registered nurse
- Urogynaecologist
- Urologist.

The following health care professionals can attend CAPS applications:

- Nurses (Registered, Continence and Community)
- Medical Specialists
- Aboriginal Health Workers.

Processing applications for MASS and CAPS can take 6 or more weeks.

If you run out of continence consumables or you are not eligible or waiting to be approved, you will need to purchase your own equipment.

You may be able to access products locally from medical suppliers or major pharmacies or from state or national suppliers (online or via phone).
